Contract [REDACTED] FOIAb3b

Gentlemen:

The following information is submitted in compliance with contractual requirements:

During the course of subject contract, there were no new inventions developed or first reduced to practice, which, to our best belief and knowledge, could be patented. Accordingly, no patents were or will be applied for.

There were no subcontracts placed, containing a patent rights clause, and no royalties were or will be paid in connection with performance of subject contract.

A statement of total costs incurred in performing the subject contract, including adjusted overhead rates resulting from a recent Air Force audit, will be forwarded to you on November 8, 1961.

Cordially,

FOIAb3a [REDACTED]
